

Universität Hamburg

Faculty: Law Department

Department: Law & Economics

The university has a 50% FTE (19.5 hours/week) position open for a research associate (wissenschaftliche/r Mitarbeiter/in)

- salary group 13 TV-L - with a starting date of April 01st, 2010.

The short-term, three-year contract will end on March, 31st, 2013 * (see also § 2 of the Academic Fixed-Term Contract Law (Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz)).

The university intends to increase the number of women amongst its academic personnel and expressly encourages qualified women to apply. In compliance with the Hamburg Equal Opportunity Law, preference will be given to qualified female applicants.

Responsibilities:

A research associate's duties include academic service, primarily in the areas of research and teaching. Within this framework associates have the opportunity to further their academic education, in particular through the completion of a doctoral dissertation.

Area(s) of Responsibility:

The successful candidate is interested in the New Institutional Economics, Law and Economics and knows how to use econometric models autonomously. Excellency in English and German is a must. We expect someone who is interested both in Research and Teaching.

Requirements:

Academic degree in economics qualifying the holder to carry out the above-mentioned responsibilities.

Preference will be given to disabled applicants with equal qualifications.

Application dossiers (application letter, curriculum vitae, degree certificate(s), etc.) are to be submitted to Prof. Dr. Stefan Voigt, Universität Hamburg, Fakultät für Rechtswissenschaft Institut für Recht und Ökonomik, Rothenbaumchaussee 36, 20148 Hamburg.
by: February 28th, 2010

For more information please contact Mr. Matthias Dauner (040) 42838-7863.

* in accordance with §§ 27, 28 Hamburg Higher Education Law (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz)